

I am writing to object to Pappas Telecasting Companys' plans to give away free airtime in a disproportionate manner to political advertisements. This blatantly disregards their duty to safeguard the public airways with which we trust them.